

Operation Name: _____ Date: _____

- Any handler operation, such as a broker or slaughter operation, who holds or manages organic animals for less than one week must complete this form. If animals are held or managed for more than one week, the operation must be certified for livestock management and fill out the complete livestock OSP.

Animal species/ type covered by this plan: _____

A. ANIMAL SOURCES

Any animals sold for organic slaughter must be verified as organic from the last third of gestation and having never been treated with ivermectin products.

- Describe your plan for verifying and documenting that all organic animals intended for slaughter are organic from the last third of gestation and have never been treated with ivermectin:

B. FEED

All feed provided to organic animals must be certified organic. You must be prepared to provide organic certificates and receipts for all feed at your on-site inspections.

- Describe your plan for verifying and documenting that all feed is certified by a USDA-accredited certifier:

- How do you ensure that animals are fed a ration sufficient to meet nutritional requirements?

- Are animals allowed to graze or obtain any feed from pasture? [] No [] Yes, complete A below

a) If pasture is used, the land must be certified organic. [] Organic certificate for pasture attached.

C. ANIMAL HOUSING AND WELFARE

Organic animals must be provided with living conditions that are clean and protect the health, safety and well being of the animals at all times.

- List location that animals are held: _____ If additional locations are used, attach a list [] List Attached

Address: _____ City: _____

State/Province: _____ Zip/Postal Code _____ Country: _____

Contact Name: _____

Phone: _____ Email(s): _____

- What is the typical and maximum amount of time animals are held before slaughter or sale?

If more than one week you must be certified for livestock management.

Typical _____ Maximum: _____

- How do you ensure that clean, dry bedding is provided? If roughages are used, they must be certified organic.

- How do you ensure that animal living conditions are clean and protect the health, safety and well being of the animals?

- How do you ensure that all animals are treated humanely?
